MISSION

Our mission is to empower people with all types of disabilities to live more independently and have control of their own lives.

Over 75% of AdLib staff identify as having a disability/medical condition or have supported a loved one with a disability, so our consumers are guided by people with professional and lived experience.

PROGRAMS & OFFERINGS

AdLib is a cross-disability organization that serves people with disabilities of all ages.

Our core services include information and referral (available to anyone), skills training, peer counseling, advocacy (individual and systemic), and transition (from youth to adulthood and facilities to community). In addition, we have the Personal Care Attendant program that allows people with physical disabilities to hire their own PCAs; options counseling, which supports people in navigating insurance and living options; representative payee which manages funds for social security recipients; and transportation program.

All our services aim to allow people with disabilities to maintain an active community life.
